"A movement is sweeping the art world"

If you want to experience - and participate in - that momentum, register for TRAC 2018: 'The Representational Art Conference' in Leeuwarden, the cultural capital of Europe. The first Representational Art Conference held in Europe!

During the conference there will be demonstrations in sculpture, portrait painting, still life painting, egg tempera, woodburning, lithography, etching and woodcut. Lectures by amongst others: world famous figurative painter Odd Nerdrum, American Philosopher Stephen Hicks and Professor Corinna Wagner from the university of Exeter. The program also includes panel discussions, paper presentations, exhibition visits and plenty of time to meet fellow art lovers. A detailed overview of our program can be seen here.

The conference language will be English.
